This gorgeous, historic full-brick home sits on 1.56 hectares (nearly 4 acres) of gently sloping property with established lawns and gardens, large paddocks, dam and stunning views. The original part of the house dates back to the 1850s with additions in 1865.

Lemon Forest has been in the same family ownership since 1932 and there have been only two owners in the property's history. Inside the five-bedroom home, you'll find Australian timber picture rails and architraves, quality hardwood timber floors and 12-foot high ceilings throughout, evoking the feel of true country living. Enter through the original Georgian Column main entrance and wide hallways to a spacious lounge room with an original open fireplace. The updated timber kitchen includes dishwasher and abundant bench and storage space, plus
