

35 North Street Windsor NSW

2  1  1

Wind back the clock to a time of simple pleasures and uncomplicated living in this beautifully preserved period residence in the very heart of Windsor, one of Australia's oldest settlements.

Previously owned by Australian artist Greg Hansell, this exquisite split-level weatherboard cottage is steeped in history, and is the epitome of the character and charm that defined the 1800's.

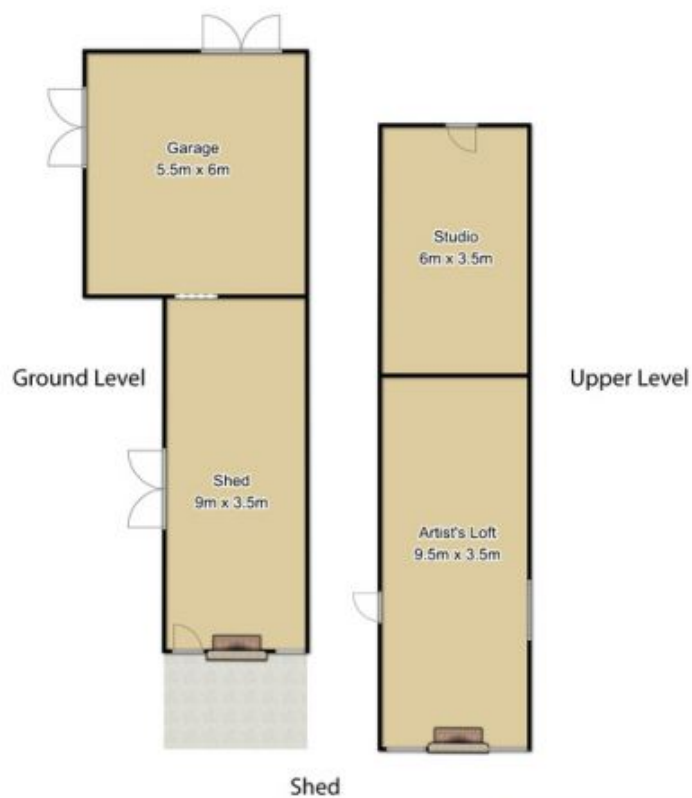

The captivating entrance foyer is a prelude to the classic features in the rest of the home: A dainty staircase leads to the loft style lounge/dining area, graced with stunning timber-lined vaulted ceilings, original floor boards, and open fire.
