Capturing the beauty & tranquility of the Australian bush, this master-built home is privately positioned on 12.5 acres with its very own creek, within a unique corridor of native flora and fauna.

With a desirable Northerly aspect, the home is filled with natural light thanks to the beautiful floor-to-ceiling cedar windows and doors, seamlessly integrating with the bull-nose verandahs and nature's doorstep outside.

Soaring 9-foot ceilings and new white washed bamboo floors feature in the living and bedroom zones, with quality Italian tiles providing easy-care flooring in the open plan kitchen & dining area. There is a spacious family room with formal dining space, plus a formal lounge.

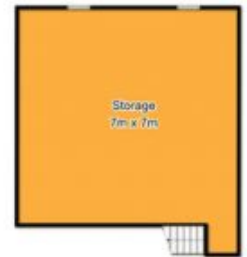

Slow-combustion fireplace with ducted ceiling vent with fan distributes heat to other areas of the home and 3 x
