

333 Castlereagh Road Agnes Banks NSW

3 2 1

This gorgeous historical property has been nobly standing since the late 1820s. One of the oldest houses in the area, it was first licenced in 1830 as the General Darling Inn. Within these walls is a rich history with generations of stories to tell.

Set on a large 955sqm block you enter the home via a covered front verandah which has a "convict brick" built path. You step into a sympathetically renovated home which has retained many of it's original features and charm.

The property has a formal lounge with fireplace and formal dining with wide timber floors and 11 foot ceilings. The expansive main bedroom has original timber slab walls,
