

653 West Portland Road Lower Portland NSW

Bennett Property have the pleasure of bringing to market this unique acreage property in a completely private location. Once the property of a renowned local artist and owned by the same family for over 40 years!

Offering a magical haven of natural bush and tall established trees, the property has the original artist's hut which is comprised of open plan layout with fireplace and loft area. Filled with nostalgia and eccentric in character this timeless hidden gem could potentially be restored, extended upon to add to it's history.

The land has several cleared sections for anyone considering buying to build their dream home (STCA). Great access to property from long established driveway.
